

PRESERVED COACHING STOCK OF BRITISH RAILWAYS

AMENDMENT SHEET NUMBER 127

December 2014 / January 2015

Special Note

Although several carriages located at West Coast Railway Company, Carnforth have, due to their post BR histories, been considered in the past to be to be preserved, this is not now the case. Thus, the majority of BR design Mark 1s, the Metropolitan-Cammell Pullman Cars and 'Queen of Scots' train carriages are not now considered to be preserved. There are though, still a number of British Railways, Pullman Car Company and Grouping era carriages at Carnforth, that are still considered to be preserved.
