

PRESERVED COACHING STOCK OF BRITISH RAILWAYS

AMENDMENT SHEET NUMBER 117 November/December 2012, January/February 2013

Amendment Sheets – the future

It is intended that this will be the last Amendment Sheet circulated by email or post. Further to Amendment Sheet 108 I can now announce that the Amendment Sheets will though in future be available on line at the RCTS website either via the home page <http://www.rcts.org.uk/> or direct <http://www.rcts.org.uk/features/preservedcoaches/> Thanks to the efforts of RCTS Webmaster David Jackman all 117 sheets so far published, along with all future sheets, are now in the process of being added to the RCTS website and thus available for perusal by anyone in the World. It is hoped the wider availability of the sheets will prove beneficial with more information coming to light earlier as well as perhaps the resolution of outstanding mysteries. In exceptional circumstances I am willing to still make available Amendment Sheets by post for those whom do not have internet access. Should you fall into that category please let me know.

Still available at present on request are the listings of 'Preserved Coaching Stock of British Railways part one – BR Design Stock' two – Grouping Design Stock' and 'Preserved Coaching Stock of British Railways part two – Grouping Design Stock' (see Amendment Sheets 94, 99 and 108 for further details).

MYSTERIOUS CARRIAGES – LOST WITHOUT TRACE !!!

Lack of any further clues regarding the destinies of a number of carriages previously included under the 'Mysterious Carriages' heading leads me to think that they no longer exist. Thus further reference will not be made to the following unless of course they do re-appear or fresh information comes to light.

LMSR MCV (CCT) 37008 – Removed from Shamrock Quay, Southampton in 1987.

BR Mark 2 TSO 5391- Removed from Pleasure Island, Lytham St, Anne's in c2004.

BR Mark 2 FK 13509 (NIR 902 -920) - This has not previously been mentioned under this heading as it was understood that it still remained at Heysham Business Park, Middleton. It would though appear that it actually departed from this location in 2010. Enquiries as to what became of it have drawn a blank but as the other carriages removed from the location in 2010 were scrapped it is presumed this one had the same fate.

BR Mark 1 BG 80665 – Removed from Bagworth and Ellistown Station, near Coalville c2009.
